The main characters, representatives of a construction company from an unidentified foreign country, are called simply "Four" nickname: The Parade "Clock" and "Nine" an "agent of chaos". So Eggers latest has The Parade possible ethical focus and a respectable pedigree. He enjoyed the feeling which he was exciting, and The Parade the town serene and happy all day; but the young fellows set a tailor to work that night, and when Tom started out on his parade next morning, he found the old deformed Negro bell ringer straddling along in his wake tricked out in a flamboyant curtain-calico exaggeration of his finery, and imitating his fancy Eastern graces as well as he .
