US torpedoes and dive bomber units were dispatched to attack the Japanese fleet. The Japanese launched an ill-coordinated attack on the larger American fleet; its planes operated at extreme ranges and could not keep together, allowing them to be easily shot down in what Americans jokingly called the "Great Marianas Turkey Shoot. The German attack was aimed to start from the port of Archangel in northern Russia, to the Astrakhan on the Caspian Sea. IJN 1941-1945 major forward bases at Truk and Rabaul. View More. IMO, this would not have been a very good idea. For me the European war was inherently more significant in military and strategic terms than the Asia-Pacific war this was also the view of the British, American and Soviet war leaders. Axis and Axis-aligned leaders.
