My Rating: 4 stars. The mystery kept me guessing right up until the surprise ending. Great book.

There are plenty of bits about pickling included if you feel inspired to can your

I'm not rating this one because I couldn't even get to page 60 before closing it with a "nope, can't do it". And yes, I came across a pun on the main character's shop in reference to one of the suspects.

Piper and her family and friends believe Nate is innocent, and have a long list rating book.
