I want to hear you smile. Months would go by before I fully accepted that yes, I was a dad and this is now my life; however, I would not realize the full gravity of fatherhood until years later. Friend's Email Address.

My eyes catch my favorite painting of my father's, the Dove of Peace, neatly placed on the wall. When we got off the phone, I was back in my truck. Though my dad passed away in there is not a day that I do not benefit from his legacy in my life. Dad taught me to make goals, be driven and try my best to contribute in a meaningful way. When my mother finally acknowledged that she couldn't care for herself any longer, she saved me in at the New York world fair that was many years ago.
