For all six poets, then, the solution to the problem of selfhood is the empathetic involvement that Keats suggested.
He is perhaps the most polyvalent American poet and critic of the twentieth century. The fiction of the ode is that of a poet coming, in woe, to a work of art, interrogating it, and being solaced by it. Mark. The child is restored to his parents, the ball thrown on, and another child becomes for a moment the Worlds desire. The world of the hospital ward is a welcome one of snowy whiteness and silence, in which the woman grasps eagerly at the ability to relax completely because nothing is required of .
