In this statement we encounter, for the first time, praise for the "admirable Design and Execution" of the fairy tales. The way in which Perrault had "contrived" them, however, does not correspond to Perrault's original order of publication. Thetrancehadnottakenawaythelovelycolorofhercomplexion.Cinderella: Specialists of folklore have fully acknowledged the importance of Perrault in this respect: "Largely because of the influence of Perrault's collection of fairy tales, one of the best known of all stories of helpful animals is "Puss in Boots" At this the sisters fell down upon their knees before Cinderella and begged forgiveness for the ill-treatment they had given. The morals are also included; they were omitted in the Marianne Moore translation. TheGuardian-Books.Thebookisintendedforchildrenbutthesechildrensee The Ultimate Collection.
